ChefCart

Taking the frustration out of homecooking!

With the majority of the world confined to the indoors due to COVID-19, many people have taken up cooking at home, reluctantly or by choice.

ChefCart helps home chefs find great recipes that match their criteria and organize ingredients to make their lives easier and their meals tastier!

Get access to thousands of recipes!

Our app uses the Spoonacular API which provides users with thousands of different recipes to choose from based on ingredients, dietary preferences and restrictions, and detailed nutritional information.

Effortlessly track your ingredients!

Our app allows users to digitally monitor what ingredients they have in their pantry, how much they have left, and their expiration date.

Our app will automatically let users know whether they have all the necessary ingredients needed for a recipe, no more last minute grocery trips!
